DVD 292.211 GRE	The Greek Gods (History Channel: Explores the fascinating history of these enduring figures through period accounts, interviews with renowned historians and classicists, and stunning location footage, including glimpses into the gods' phenomenal temples. Learn why the ancient deities were endowed with human failings and discover the significance of the most famous Greek myths. View the magnificent artwork that preserved their images and learn how these epic figures have been integrated into modern life. From Aphrodite to Zeus, this production presents an exploration of the mythic and monumental world of Greek deities. 50 minutes)
DVD 304.2 HUM	Human Footprint (National Geographic: Reveals the extraordinary impact that each of our lives has on the world around us. In a playful, surprising and thought-provoking portrait of our time on earth, National Geographic demonstrates, in a series of remarkable visuals, what makes up an average human life today and how everything we do has impact on the world around us. In this unique journey through life, it shows all the people you will ever know, how much waste you will produce, the amount of fuel you will consume and how much you must pack in during your 2,475,526,000 seconds on Earth. 90 minutes)
DVD 304.28 ELE	The 11th Hour (Comparisons to Al Gore's Oscar-winning slide show will be inevitable, but there's a key difference between the two documentaries. An Inconvenient Truth was aimed at the PBS set, while Leonardo DiCaprio's The 11th Hour combines a traditional structure with a more MTV-friendly pace. Of course, neither was made by these public figures. Davis Guggenheim directed the former, while Nadia Connors and Leila Connors Petersen are behind the latter. DiCaprio serves as producer, co-writer, and narrator. Their first feature combines a diverse array of interviews with a dizzying variety of images, both soothing and alarming (droughts and hurricanes vs. serene sunsets and playful polar bears). 95 minutes)
DVD 306.45 BOT	Botany of Desire (Featuring Michael Pollan and based on his best-selling book, this special takes viewers on an eye-opening exploration of the human relationship with the plant world -- seen from the plants' point of view. Narrated by Frances McDormand, the program shows how 4 familiar species--the apple, the tulip, marijuana and the potato--evolved to satisfy our yearnings for sweetness, beauty, intoxication and control. 120 minutes)
VHS 333.95 SAV	Saving a Species: The Sea Turtle Story, The Rhino Story, The Manatee Story These presentations are a colorful, informative way to introduce the concept of endangered species to young students, with an emphasis on the importance of maintaining the balance of nature.

DVD 791.43 BOL	Bolt
DVD 791.43 BOR	Born in East L. A. (Cheech Marin writes, directs and stars in this hip, outrageous comedy that's based on his best-selling record parody. The story follows Rudy, an American of Hispanic descent, whose south-of-the-border looks show him no mercy during an immigration raid in a migrant worker factory. As his luck goes, he is caught with neither money nor his ID and is deported to Mexico - without being able to speak a word of Spanish! Unable to contact his vacationing family or his newly immigrated cousin, Rudy is in for a crazy ride as he tries every legal--and illegal--scheme he can think of to get back home to the States. He finds himself in jail, in love, and practically in-sane! Trouble follows him everywhere as he runs from la migra in this case of misplaced identity. Rated "R" 85 minutes)

DVD 791.43 CAL	Call of the Wild (2 copies)
VHS 791.43 CAM	Camelot (Lerner and Lowew's moving musical about King Arthur, Guenevere, Lancelot, and the Round Table. LERNER AND LOEWE'S MOVING MUSICAL ABOUT KING ARTHUR, GUENEVERE, LANCELOT AND THE ROUND TABLE.
DVD 791.43 CHA	Chariots of Fire (The heroes are an unlikely pair of young athletes who ran for Great Britain in the 1924 Paris Olympics: devout Protestant Eric Liddell, a divinity student whose running makes him feel closer to God, and Jewish Harold Abrahams, a highly competitive Cambridge student who has to surmount the institutional hurdles of class prejudice and anti-Semitism. There's support from Ian Holm (as Abrahams's coach) and John Gielgud and Lindsay Anderson as a couple of Cambridge fogies. 124 minutes)
VHS 791.43 CHA	Charly (When a mentally retarded man named Charly (Cliff Robertson) undergoes experimental brain surgery, he is miraculously freed from the prison of his own mind. As his IQ soars to genius proportions, Charly's eyes are opened to a world he's never truly seen. But when the effects of his operation inexplicably begin to fade, Charly must find a way to halt his regression before his own mind destroys his life, his newfound romance and the man he's become. Rated "PG" 103 minutes)
VHS 791.43 CHI	Chinatown (Jack Nicholson is private eye, Jake Gittes, living off the murky moral climate of sunbaked, pre-war Southern California. Hired by a beautiful socialite (Faye Dunaway) to investigate her husband's extra-marital affair, Gittes is swept into a maelstrom of double dealings and deadly deceptions, uncovering a web of personal and political scandals that come crashing together for one, unforgettable night in...Chinatown. Rated "R" 131 minutes)
DVD 791.43 CHO	The Chocolate War (Jerry did the one thing no one expected. He stood up for himself. The new boy at strict Catholic High School, Jerry Renault, is bullied into selling boxes of chocolates for the school's annual fund-raising event. The sadistic headmaster, Brother Leon, and 'The Vigils', a vicious gang of school thugs, make Jerry's life hell when he decides he won't be pushed around anymore. Rated "R" 100 minutes)
VHS 791.43 COL	The Color Purple The story of Celie, a poor black woman from the south, whose friendship with two women helps her overcome the brutality of her father and husband. Rated "PG-13" 154 minutes)
DVD 791.43 CRA	Crash Movie studios, by and large, avoid controversial subjects like race the way you might avoid a hive of angry bees. So it's remarkable that Crash even got made; that it's a rich, intelligent, and moving exploration of the interlocking lives of a dozen Los Angeles residents--black, white, latino, Asian, and Persian--is amazing. A politically nervous district attorney and his high-strung wife get car-jacked by an oddly sociological pair of young black men; a rich black T.V. director and his wife get pulled over by a white racist cop and his reluctant partner; a detective and his Latina partner and lover investigate a white cop who shot a black cop--these are only three of the interlocking stories that reach up and down class lines. Not rated. 112 minutes)
DVD 791.43 DAN	Dangerous Minds (Based on a true-life story – Michelle Pfeiffer is former U.S. Marine, LouAnne Johnson, a first-time high school teacher assigned to a class of tough but smart inner city students. When conventional methods fail to reach them, the feisty Ms. Johnson (Pfeiffer) tries the unconventional--defying the rules and creating her own curriculum! In the process, she instills a new self-confidence in her students--motivating them toward their greatest potential. Critically acclaimed. Rated "R" 99 minutes)
VHS 791.43 DEA	Dead Poets Society (Robin Williams stars as an English teacher who doesn't fit into the conservative prep school where he teaches, but whose charisma and love of poetry inspires several boys to revive a secret society with a bohemian bent. Director Peter Weir adds layers of emotional depth in scenes of conflict between the kids and adults. (A subplot involving one father's pressure on his son--played by Robert Sean Leonard--to drop his interest in theater reaches heartbreaking proportions.) Williams is given plenty of latitude to work in his brand of improvisational humor, though it is all well-woven into his character's style of instruction. Rated "PG" 128 minutes)

VHS 791.43 DRI	Driving Miss Daisy (Winner of the Academy Award® for best picture of 1989, this drama, adapted from the play by Alfred Uhry, chronicles the 25-year friendship between a stubborn, aging Southern widow (Jessica Tandy) and her loyal chauffeur (Morgan Freeman). At first, the self-sufficient Miss Daisy is reluctant to accept the services of a chauffeur, but Hoke is quiet, wise, and tolerant, and as the years pass the unlikely friends develop a deep mutual respect and admiration. Rated "PG" 99 minutes)
DVD 791.43 ELN	El Norte (The film focuses on two young Mayan Indians--sister Rosa (Zaide Silvia Gutiérrez) and brother Enrique (David Villalpando)--whose lives are shattered by the Guatemalan civil war. As one says to the other, "The past is gone forever ... you're my whole family now." They flee to Mexico with the ultimate goal of crossing into the United States--"El Norte"--where they hope for a new, secure life. Rated "R" 139 minutes)
DVD 791.43 ETH	Ethan Frome (Liam Neeson stars as Ethan Frome, a man torn between his joyless marriage to one woman and his lustful desire for another. His actions soon lead to a forbidden triangle between one love that is, and one that will never be. A timeless story of love, betrayal, and desire. Rated "PG" 99 minutes)
VHS 791.43 FID	Fiddler on the Roof (This rousing musical, based on the stories of Shalom Aleichem, takes place in pre-revolutionary Russia and centers on the life of Tevye (Topol), a milkman who is trying to keep his family's traditions in place while marrying off his three older daughters. Yet, times are changing and the daughters want to make their own matches, breaking free of many of the constricting customs required of them by Judaism. In the background of these events, Russia is on the brink of revolution and Jews are feeling increasingly unwelcome in their villages. Rated "G" 181 minutes)
VHS 791.43 FIE	Field of Dreams

VHS 817 MAR	Hal Holbrook in Mark Twain Tonight (“Mark Twain Tonight!” began as a Broadway show in the 1960s and was filmed as a CBS special in 1967. Yet you’d never know it, because the humor, which is more than a century old, is still laugh-out-loud funny today. Twain--I mean, Holbrook--gives a monologue that is rambling, intelligent, and humorous as he culls together commentary from a variety of Twain sources. From dachshund hounds, politics, and patriotism to cigar smoking, memory loss, and religion, this 90-minute video leaps from subject to subject as we're entertained by material that's as fresh today as it was when it was written in the 1800s.) Amazon

DVD 818 MYS	The Mystery of Edgar Allan Poe (A&E Home Video. 50 minutes)
DVD 822.33 HAM	Hamlet Franco Zeffirelli's "stripped-down," 2-hour version of Shakespeare's play stars Mel Gibson as a robust version of the ambivalent Danish prince. The supporting cast includes Glenn Close as Gertrude, Alan Bates as Claudius, Ian Holm as Polonius, and Helena Bonham Carter as Ophelia. Zeffirelli's vigorous direction employs a lively camera style that nicely alters the viewer's preconceptions about the way Hamlet should look. Rated "PG" 135 minutes)
VHS 822.33 HAM	Hamlet (A sumptuous, star-studded version of "Hamlet" that scores "a palpable hit" on its avowed goal: to make the text as clear and urgent as possible. Branagh himself plays the melancholy son of the Danish court, caught in a famous muddle about whether to seek revenge against his royal father's presumed slayer... the man who now sits on the throne and shares the bed of Hamlet's mother. As a director, Branagh uses the vast, cold interiors of a 19th-century manor to gorgeous effect; the story might scurry down this hallway, into that back chamber, or sprawl out into the enormous main room. 2 VHS tapes. Rated "PG" 242 minutes) Amazon
DVD 822.33 MAC	MacBeth (Roman Polanski's adaptation of the Shakespearean tragedy remains one of the most infamous for a number of reasons: the copious amounts of bloody gore, its expert use of location settings (filmed in North Wales), and Lady Macbeth's nude sleepwalking scene. Despite its notoriety, though, this production does remain one of the more compelling film adaptations of the Scottish tragedy, if one of the more pessimistic takes on the story of Macbeth and his overreaching ambition. Rated "R" 140 minutes) Amazon
VHS 822.33 ROM	Romeo and Juliet (Franco Zeffirelli's 1968 adaptation of Shakespeare's, Romeo and Juliet was unique in its day for casting kids in the play's pivotal roles of, well, kids. Seventeen-year-old Leonard Whiting and 15-year-old Olivia Hussey play the titular pair, the Bard's star-crossed lovers who defy a running feud between their families in order to be together in love. Rated "PG" 138 minutes)
VHS 822.33 ROM	William Shakespeare's, Romeo and Juliet (Baz Luhrmann's dazzling and unconventional adaptation of William Shakespeare's classic love story casts Leonardo DiCaprio and Claire Danes portraying Romeo and Juliet, the youthful star-crossed lovers of the past. However, the setting has been moved from its Elizabethan origins to the futuristic urban backdrop of Verona Beach. Rated "PG" 120 minutes)
DVD 822.33 SHA	In Search of Shakespeare (Hosted by Michael Wood, this 4-part history series explores the life of the world's greatest writer. Mixing travel, adventure, interviews and specially shot sequences with the Royal Shakespeare Company on the road, the series sets the life of Shakespeare in the turbulent times in which he lived--a time of surveillance, militarism and foreign wars. The Bard lived through the Spanish Armada, the Gunpowder Plot and the colonization of the New World, and saw firsthand England's Cultural Revolution, which led the English people into a new Protestant future. Not rated. 240 minutes. 2 discs) Amazon
VHS 823.5 GUL	Gulliver's Travels (Jonathan Swift classic: Gulliver's Travels is a brilliant satire and inventive fantasy and is the story of an 18th century physician who journeys are something of legend, He towers over the tiny city of Lilliput, matches wits with a cunning sorcerer, and proves his mettle in a realm where horses rule and humans are beasts. Hallmark. 2 VHS tapes. Rated "PG" 187 minutes)
VHS 823.91 LOR	Lord of the Flies (Harry Hook's adaptation is not as faithful to the William Golding novel as one would wish (they excised the Lord of the Flies dialogue with Simon!) and because of it, the movie is less allegorical and less resonant. A group of young men from a military academy are stranded on an island. The group quickly becomes fractious with a passive section led by Ralph, trying to get rescued, and a hunter faction, led by Jack, trying to procure meat and "have fun." Rated "R" 90 minutes) Amazon
DVD	Beowulf

829.3 BEO	Since 1990, Benjamin Bagby has been performing the great epic, Beowulf, at major festivals and venues around the world. Now his remarkable performance is caught on DVD. While Beowulf has come down to us as literature, as a written poem, the epic's pre-literate medieval audience would have known it through the performance of a scop, a bardic storyteller, as Bagby presents himself here. In this one-man tour de force Bagby accompanies himself on an Anglo-Saxon harp. Using the entire range of his voice, he delivers this gripping tale in Old English, as it could have been experienced more than one thousand years ago. Amazon

VHS 937 ROM Volume 1	Rome: Power & Glory. The Rise (Filmed in 10 countries, this documentary combines location footage of ancient monuments, detailed reenactments, period art and writings, and insights from scholars and public figures, setting the stage for Rome's epic saga of war and conquest. Famous stories and myths come to life: Romulus and Remus, the twin brothers whose violent battles led to the City's founding; the Romans' rebellion against their Etruscan rulers; and the rape of the Sabine women. This is also the story of how Rome grows from a primitive village into a republic based upon the most formidable system of government that the Western world has ever known: democracy. Rome's growing influence spreads throughout the Mediterranean. Extra Features include Timeline. 52 minutes) Amazon
VHS 937 ROM Volume 2	Rome: Power & Glory. Legions of Conquest (Filmed in 10 countries, this documentary combines location footage of ancient monuments, detailed reenactments, period art and writings, and fascinating insights from scholars and public figures, chronicling the stories behind the campaigns that brought them greatness, including Scipio's defeat of Hannibal's army and Julius Caesar's march on Rome itself. Rome produced the most successful warriors in history. The saga of how an amateur citizens' army rose to conquer the Western world and beyond is one of proud men and almost unending triumph. This is also the story of how the armies of conquest turn into armies of occupation and defense, ultimately weakening the Empire's resolve. Extra Features include Timeline & Virtual Reconstructions. 52 minutes) Amazon

VHS 937 ROM Volume 3	Rome: Power & Glory. Seduction of Power (Filmed in 10 countries, this documentary combines location footage of ancient monuments, detailed reenactments, period art and writings, and fascinating insights from scholars and public figures, vividly tracing the depravity, madness, and deceit that ultimately permeate the leadership of Rome, from the first peaceful elections to the corruption surrounding bids for total imperial rule. The names of Rome's great rulers resonate as some of the most brilliant men of all time, but also as some of the most treacherous and deranged, whose memorable characters are brought to life. Julius Caesar makes a bid for a life-long power, provoking his own brutal assassination. Octavian takes the name Augustus and declares himself Rome's first Emperor. Caligula proclaims his ultimate devotion to his horse... Their lust for power shapes the Empire. Extra Features include Timeline & The Twelve Caesars. 52 minutes)
VHS 937 ROM Volume 4	Rome: Power & Glory. Grasp of Empire (Filmed in 10 countries, this documentary combines location footage of ancient monuments, detailed reenactments, period art and writings, and fascinating insights from scholars and public figures, chronicling how Rome appropriates the best that many civilizations have to offer and spreads its culture throughout the West. At its heights, Rome rules over 50 million people, including Etruscans, Greeks, Gauls, and Egyptians. Efficient cities are built and linked by paved roads. Yet such progress comes at a price. While Romans initially welcome the conquered peoples into the Empire, they eventually begin enslaving them. Taxes grow unbearable for the common man, and the gap between rich and poor widens. The seeds are sown for Rome's eventual downfall. Extra Features include Timeline, Colosseum House of Terror, & Pompeii. 52 minutes)
VHS 937 ROM Volume 5	Rome: Power & Glory. The Cult of Order (Filmed in 10 countries, this documentary combines location footage of ancient monuments, detailed reenactments, period art and writings, and fascinating insights from scholars and public figures, portraying how the growing air of decadence and a series of bizarre emperors lead to unrest in what had been one of history's most tolerant societies. The Roman people take solace in a seemingly marginal religious cult--Christianity. When the Emperor Diocletian perceives his subjects' beliefs as a threat, he unleashes brutal waves of persecution that leave thousands dead. The violence ironically results in martyrdoms that only fuel Christianity's growth, transforming it into a unifying force whose influence could rival that of the Empire. Extra Features include Timeline, Flamma Gladiator Superstar, Training Killers, & Fighting Men of The Arena. 52 minutes)
VHS 937 ROM Volume 6	Rome: Power & Glory. The Fall (Filmed in 10 countries, this documentary combines location footage of ancient monuments, detailed reenactments, period art and writings, and fascinating insights from scholars and public figures, depicting the gripping saga of Rome's downfall. In the 2nd Century A.D., eccentric rulers, crippling taxes, rampant poverty, and weakening borders gradually diminish the Empire's integrity. As Romans distract themselves with endless games, their enemies draw nearer, and social unrest threatens to reach a boiling point. Finally, in 312 A.D., the Emperor Constantine moves the capital east to Constantinople. Ruling like an Oriental sultan, he abandons the western empire, which is eventually sacked by the Goths. Rome's glory fades over the decades, but the spirit of its civilization lives on. Rome's achievements will inspire countless generations. Extra Features include Timeline & Fearful Facts. 52 minutes)
